FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCIAL BUSINESS, notwithstanding the holiday on Thursday, was at the usual quistude point yesterday. This-"even-running" condition of things is not confined to this locality. The New York Pribate mast "the make held ferable duliness was everywhere noticeshie to-day in the vicinity of Wall street, and the absolute quiet of the various markets, and the indi-position of brokers, for chasing eighths, to prey even upon each other, let slove the confiding outsider, was so marked that were it not for the fall of the mercury we might even fancy that instead of the "melancholy days" the summer solstice was again upon us." Money is in sufficient plenty, while applications for loans are fully inside the ability of the banks to meet all exceptionable paper. This is the case in other large cities in the south. The New Orleans Bulletin says: "The demand for money throughout the week has been of moderate extent, both at the banks and outside, the former taking generally all the eligible paper offered. On the street the inquiry has shown some falling off, and good paper is in demand. Money is easy and rates lower," Exchange is firm at the new rate; discount on New York and the north; on New Orleans 1; selling on both at par. Gold was steady in New York all morning at 1144@1144; here brokers were paying 1134@1134. Trera is some inquiry for State warrants. There is some improvement of feeling in police and fire scripal the same quotation. City tax scrip is firmer, and it is said the cutside quotation, 70, can be readily obtained. Nothing reported in stocks or bonds.

Buying. Selling.

Memphis police and fire $3.3 \times $3.4 \t discount on New York and the north; course the reports of weakness, and ic lower to sell, had their effect on our market, as is shown by the fact that middling declined je. It is noticeable that spinners bought freely, and New York futures closed firm. Exporters were doing very little. Private telegrams from Europe were reported to be discouraging, instructing buyers to hold off the market. Movements of imporfance connected with British policy were anid to be the cause of the restriction of transactions. There are reports that the storm on Thursday night played mischief with codon, tearing it from the plant and beating it down into the mud the turrows, in many places. It is also stated that the loss from rost on October 16th proves to Le of a very serious character throughout the northern portion of the "cotton belt." The New York Bulletin, o Wednesday, says exporters were buying, but spinners showed indifference, but the tone was week, although hold ers were by no means pressing upon the market. The Bulletin adds: "A not particularly encouraging state of affairs reported from Liverpool, and 'too much cotton,' were the principal depressing in-fluences. The receipts at the por s seemed to indicate 40,000 bales, and actually reached 37,800, which rather frightened the 'longs,' especially as there is as yet no indication of any actual scatcity for this mouth, and many who or two were inclined to sell out." The official quotations of the Memphis cotton exchange were as follows:

Low middling. The market closed quiet; sales were 8200 bales, including 950 yesterday, of all which spinners took 2050 bales, exporters 900 bales, speculators 300 bales. @11 c. Middling same time last year, Dusty cottons quote 7@9ac; stained, 10

The steamer Batesville, we are informed by telegraph, left Jacksonport last Wednesday morning for Batesville and cleaned all the cotion out of that place and put it off at Jacksonport for the steamer Osceola, and left yesterday for Pocohoutas, up Black river, to clean it out of that stream.

A Pittsburg dispatch yesterday says: "The following shipments of coal have been renorted as leaving on the present rise: For Louisville, is steamers, lib boats and gluarges, with 3,000,000 bushels; for Cincinnati, 4 steamers and 34 barges, with 460,000 bushels; for New Orleans. 3 steamers, 24 boats and 7 barges, with 610,000 bushels."

He deserves a short respite from labor, as he has not missed at the cheen the same of the steam of the steam of the steam of the steam of the steament of the steam of the steam of the steament with relatives and friends. He deserves a short respite from labor, as he has not missed a trip, or been absent from his post except a few days last summer on account of a fussel with the malarial fever, in fourteen months. It was rumored yesterday that the City of a usta came down as far as the mouth of White river, re-shipped her load and returne i up that river. Perhaps she thinks water is going to be scarce, and wants to avail herself of the present stage for all she can get. We, however, announce her for departure up White to-merrow, as we have no anthenne information to the contrary.

Thanksgiving, with all its attendant pleasures, is over, and those who participated in its enjoyments may not be exactly all right about the head this norming. It takes two or three days, you know, to get well or one of those bust-head virisky headlaches; and then it requires about a week to unburden a gorzed stomach. It's a good thing that Thanksgiving day, like Chistmas day, comes but once a year.
